

Principles of Project Management

In today's fast-paced, global workplace, teams are formed across business units and geographical locations to collaborate on projects. The demand for project managers, who can effectively contribute to and manage projects, continues to grow exponentially. The popular Principles of Project Management course remains in demand as organisations drive the growth of cross-functional project management skills.

Course Facts

Course delivery

Online, digitised short course

Course duration

Ten weeks

Notional learning hours

5-7 learning hours per week, anytime, anywhere

B-BBEE

Assistance offered to obtain Category B recognition under Skills Development element of B-BBEE scorecard

Learner Journey Management

The Wits DigitalCampus team provide learning support throughout the course

Certification

A Certificate of Competence from the University of the Witwatersrand

Target market

Business professionals who will be contributing to projects, managing projects or using project management skills in the workplace

Assessment

Assessment and grades are calculated as follows:

5% – Participation in Discussion Activity forums

35% – Module assessment results

60% – Online examination result

Course outcomes

Apply basic project management theory in the workplace

Manage project plans and schedules, incorporating the human element to ensure high performance project teams

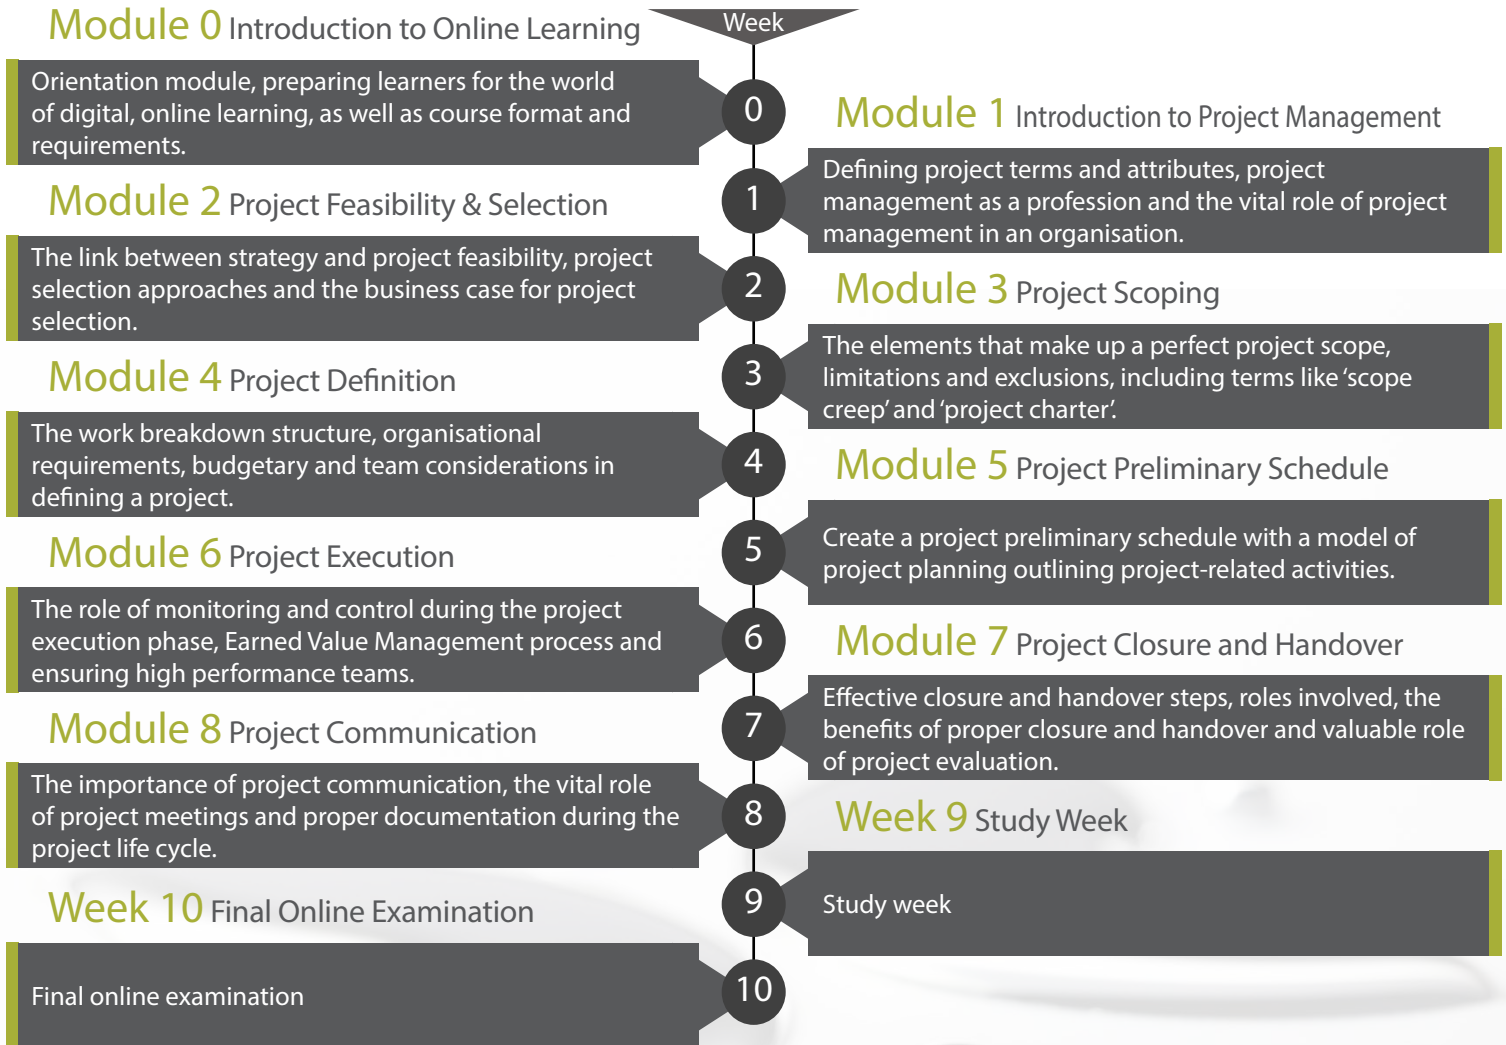

Learners who meet the assessment criteria will receive a Certificate of Competence from the University of the Witwatersrand's Wits Plus, Centre for Part-Time Studies. A Certificate of Competence is proof that course content has been completed and learners have been assessed for competence against the learning outcomes set.

Senior Wits lecturer, Dr Robert Venter, is a renowned subject matter expert in project management, lecturing across Wits faculties and schools. Dr Venter holds a BComm Hons, an MComm and a PhD from Wits. Dr Venter is also the writer and lecturer of the DigitalCampus Advanced Project Management course.

Principles of Project Management

Course Outline

Learner Journey Management

Our Wits DigitalCampus Learner Journey team will ensure that all applicants are enrolled, informed, supported and motivated to complete the course. The team can be contacted online, telephonically or by email and will respond to learner queries and comments within a working day.

Our effective Learner Journey Management is evident in these statistics:

Course completion rate:
98% plus

Course pass rate:
99% plus

Application & Payment Process

Apply online at www.digitalcampus.co.za

In accordance with Wits policies, upfront payment is required to register for the course. The payment of the fees for this course is the responsibility of the individual registering for the course.